ANNUAL REPORT 2012

Even though the Croatian Conservation-Restoration Association was founded in 1994 it had uncertain periods which led to inactivity and weakening of the Association's internal structure. The year 2012 has been the turning point in Association- regular meetings and professional outreach that resulted in intense activity and changes in the management structure in the year 2013.

The most important activity in 2012 was the preparation for the E.C.C.O. membership followed by the admission, voted at the General Assembly of E.C.C.O. in Bolzano (Bozen) on 16th of April 2013.

Other activities that Association was dealing with are professional issues - inconsistencies and inaccurate terms in professional documents and regulations that continued through the following years.
